DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Difference Making

This last Sunday the Super Bowl (championship game for American football) was played and the New York Giants defeated the heavily favored New England Patriots in one of the biggest upsets in that sports history. It was a thrilling game that came down to the last few seconds before the winner was determined.

I recently read a short article about a famous football coach in America whose name is Lou Holtz. This article talks about the power of encouragement and how Lou's life was changed by one conversation his football coach had with him and his parents. For this "abbreviated" version of the Dalat News I am providing a link to that short story as it brings home our focus on the importance of encouragement.

PTO

Valentines, Western Culture Style.

Myth... Valentines is just for lovers. Truth... Valentines is for everyone!

In North America it is appropriate on Valentines day to give a card, chocolates or flowers, to anyone that means alot to us.

Children will share cards with everyone in their class while trying very hard never to miss anyone. They then come home after school and count and sort their cards from their class mates. Its a wonderful day of expressing brotherly and sisterly affection for one another.

Parents might give their children a small gift or card while their children do the same for them in return. Kids even give a small card to their teachers, saying 'Be My Valentine !'

To help make this Valentines speacial and easily accessible to everyone at Dalat, the PTO will host a Flower sale on Valentines Day, Thursday Feb. 14 2008. Parents will be there to sell flowers from 3 o'clock till 4 o'clock.

Prices are:

1-flowers= 3RM

2-flowers= 5RM

See you on Valentines Day ! PTO
