

BOARDING APPLICATION

Student's Full Name: _____
Surname Given Middle

Welcome to residence life at Dalat International School. Our purpose is to make the residential life of Dalat as "home-like" as possible within the limits of a large, close community.

Boarding students are under the jurisdiction of the school from the time they arrive for the semester until they leave at the end of the semester.

This section to be completed by the parent.

1. Explain why you would like your child enrolled in the boarding program.

2. How do you expect your child will manage the separation from home and family?

3. How do you plan to manage the separation from your child?

4. How do you expect your child will adjust to dorm life?

5. What will be your child's strengths and weaknesses related to community living?

6. How do you expect your child will contribute to a Christian home environment in the dorm? (which involves times of prayer and bible study, worship, demonstrating love and respect for others, living with integrity and other guidelines, as defined in the residence life handbook).

7. How do you feel about the values and guidelines explained in the residence life handbook?

8. Are you willing to fully support all aspects of the residence life handbook? If not, which ones can you not support?

This section to be completed by the student:

1. What are your hobbies and interests?

2. If we were to ask your friends to describe your character and personality, how would they answer?

3. Do you have any limitations, physically or emotionally, which might affect dorm living?

4. What is the longest you have been away from your family? How was the experience?

5. What do you think will be the most difficult aspect of being a boarding student and how do you think you will overcome this difficulty?

6. a. Please write your definition of a Christian.

b. At this point in your life, would you consider yourself a Christian?

7. How do you plan to contribute to the Christian environment in the dorm home?

8. How do you feel about the guidelines explained in the residence life handbook?

9. Are you willing to obey the residence life staff and guidelines while in the boarding program?

Please note that a copy of the residence life handbook can be found on the Dalat website at <http://www.dalat.org/handbooks.html> or a copy can be obtained from the school office.
