

AERC

The Asia Education Resource Consortium (AERC) is an organization servicing the educational needs of expatriate Christian workers throughout Asia. Its services are provided through area Family Education Conferences, personal visits with the families as well as through regional resource centers. Dalat's Learning Resource Center is a member of this network of regional resource centers providing services to these families.

Learning Resource Center Mission Statement

- A. to work in partnership and cooperation with other Christian schools and agencies in Asia in providing educational services and resources to families who are meeting the educational needs of their children in cross-cultural settings.
- B. to oversee the supervision of extension services and courses offered through Dalat International School.
- C. to provide an area for visiting families to access information about Dalat International School, educational book resources, as well as online computer resources.
