Volume Two Dalat International School Dalat JV Eagles Take FOURTH in Tourney

by Jesse Beth Thompson

“Tiffany, pass!” Amanda Hanson (8) yells, as Tiffany Steinkamp (8) dribbles the ball up the field. Tiffany kicks the ball to Amanda, who sinks the ball into the net. The team and the “fans” go wild!

On October 18, 2003, the Dalat International School (DIS) Varsity and Junior Varsity football girls stormed the fields of Penang Free School, ready to win the gold medal. The Junior Varsity girls played four games in all. The first game the Junior Varsity played was against Uplands, who won 4-0. They won their next game, against Kedah, by 2-1. Dalat’s Junior Varsity played a tough game against Varsity for their third tournament game, but in the end, Varsity won, 6-0. Finally, the last game came and went and Junior Varsity lost 1-2 to Penang State. Amanda scored the three winning goals.

Despite their losses, sadness did not hang over the team long. Andi Thompson (5) said, “I wasn’t disappointed for long because most of the girls on the opposite teams were bigger and older than us, especially Dalat Varsity and Uplands.”

Grace Lee (8) added, “The easiest team to play against was Kedah.”

Hallelujah Happenings

By Jesse Beth Thompson

On October 31, 2003, the Dalat International School campus swarmed with people dressed up as everything from angels and pirates to palm trees and princesses. After the parade of fashionable costumes, the winners of the categories, Best Bible Character, Most Creative, and Best Book Character. Congratulations go to Susheela Meyappaan dressed up as a clown for Best Book, and Ms. Titus, Naomi Matanick, Anna Hodgson and Nia Diago dressed up as palm trees and a hula girl to take top honors in the Most Creative category.

for us had greatest impact on earth. He used many stories from his own experience coaching athletics to illustrate his message about spiritual priorities.

Thirsty, eh?

When asked about his favorite drink, McKnight said, “Ah~ of course, I like Dr. Pepper.” (Just like Jared [8]) Snow Crab Legs and roast beef are his favorite stuffers. He also likes volleyball, bicycle, motorcycle, fixing up things, woodshop, four wheeled driving, and (continued on p.2, column 2)

Steve McKnight SEWS it Up!

By Sung In Kang

Ring! Ring! “Steve we need you here!!!” PUD called anxiously.

Who did PUD call? Steve McKnight, who was invited to come to school to preach about what we are thirsty for. Thirsty? How did Steve McKnight plan to relate his speech to the theme “THIRSTY?”

I asked Steve McKnight how he decided on topics to talk about.

“He he, well, I’ve been thinking, praying, and knowing the verse.” Steve says that the fact that Jesus died breaking things.

Steve has traveled to England, Scotland, Peru, Mexico, and Malaysia; but his favorite vacation spot is the beach at South Carolina. He says he always wanted to visit Penang after hearing a speaker that had been educated at Dalat. When asked, Steve said that Dalat is just like he thought it would be. He said that Dalat students are friendly. Penang, he said, turned out to be more industrial than he expected.

When asked about his family, Mr. McKnight told us about his son, Connor, who is ten-years old and likes soccer and video games. Alyssa, his five-year old daughter, likes to play with Barbie dolls. His wife Lori likes painting, sewing, and flower gardening.

LATEST BLOCK-BUSTERS, SMASH OR TRASH! By Brendan Frentz

Out of a poll of ten randomly selected kids, Pirates of the Caribbean topped the chart as the “Must see movie of the year!” Honestly, I think that some kids were too embarrassed to say that they liked the Lizzie McGuire movie!

Matt Ermis said of Lizzie McGuire, “I think that it was a really cool movie, I think Lizzie McGuire was drop-dead gorgeous! Her voice is angelic.”

Jake Latsha on the other hand said, “The Lizzie McGuire movie was really poorly done. Hillary Duff is full of herself and the plot was terrible, it was just a bad movie!”

Erica said of Bruce Almighty, “This movie was one of the funniest movies I have ever seen.”

	Smash	Luke-warm	Trash
Bruce Almighty	7	3	0
The League	1	5	4
Freaky Friday	4	5	1
The Lizzie McGuire Movie	0	4	6
Pirates of the Caribbean	9	1	0

Jim Carey is a great actor!”

Numbers don’t lie, people, do you want to waste your time on a movie that has proven to be a waste of time? So take from the chart what you will and watch worthwhile movies!

John Jacob Jingle-Heimer, Oops Careful!

by: Brendan Frentz

John Hinton, Pastor Dave’s assistant, has become a big part of Dalat in the last few months. He has buried himself in SEW, Improvisation Club, teaching, and getting to know the students. Although currently John is paddling solo, he is planning on “popping the question” in the next few months. John will be with us until December 15th when he goes back home to the land of the free and the home of the brave. He has been dating his girlfriend, Leah Daugherty, for 8 months. Although John Michael Hinton is obviously excited about getting back to America, he has really fallen in love with Penang and it’s people. For instance, John really loves teh tarik.

...“He has really fallen in love with Penang and its people.”

Where Is Our SOUP!!!

By: Kang Sung-In

Where is the soup that the middle school collected during SEW week, which ran from October 12-21. Our Sub Coordinator, Beth Steiert, who started Charity & Compassion., Dalat’s organization to help the poor, says that the whole school, has collected a total of approximately 290 cans of soup! And it is all gone! All the soup has been given to Society of St Vincent de Paul, St Joseph’s Orphanage, Children’s Protection Society, The Batu Maung Tamil Baptist Church, Star Home for the elderly, and Flood victims in the Kulim area.
